Item #: 201501377

MOTION, submitted by Vice Mayor David Mann, that the Administration establish a working group among city departments to focus on the issue of city owned property maintenance. The working group should take on the following goals: 1.

Creating an inventory of all city owned property and defining their necessity for public use 2. Developing a plan to allow the City to market property that is deemed unnecessary for sale 3. Implementing a plan to improve the quality of city owned lots, focusing on the frequency with which they are maintained. WE FURTHER MOVE that the Administration provide a report and recommendation to Council on the above goals and any others that stem from the group's work.

Item #: 201501379

RESOLUTION, dated 10/13/2015 submitted by Councilmember Yvette Simpson, EXPRESSING City Council's support of the Intimate Partner Violence Bill as introduced in the Ohio House of Representatives on October 14, 2015, which proposes expanding the protections and legal options for victims of domestic violence and abuse. This bill will expand the definition of victim from "family or household member" to "protected relationship" which will extend current legal remedies to individuals with continuing and significant relationships of a romantic nature with the offender. Further, it will provide additional protections for all victims of domestic violence and abuse.
